

Dear Yes For Kids Supporters,

"Yes" is a powerful little word. Think of how it's changed your life.

A marriage proposal. A home mortgage. A new job. That one simple word has made a difference in all of our lives so many times. Now, I'm sending you this message because I believe in the power of Yes to help change the future for students and schools right here in Billings. I'm supporting efforts to pass mill levies for our local school district, and I'm hoping you will, too.

To help you find out about the mill levy efforts, and to give you access to tools you can use when talking to other people, I'd like to point you to YesforBillingsKids.org. At the site, you can:

Download fact sheets and information about the mill levies:

(Enter your email address in the "updates" box on any page.)

Finally, can I ask you for one more thing? Please forward this message to anyone you know who should be part of the effort. We want to show everyone in our community--especially our children--that a simple "Yes" can mean a brighter future for all of us.

Sincerely,

(Your name)
